

If we become a victim of violence,
where can we ask for help?

Counseling

Danuri Call Center ☎ 1577-1366
- Counseling and interpretation service
24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Violence Victim Counseling Center for Migrant Women

Counseling and aid information
- Targets : Migrant women and that family member

Protection

Shelter for migrant women who are victims of violence

Protection and counseling
- Qualification : Migrant women and that family member
- Length of Stay: 2 years

Housing aid

Group home for migrant women who are the victims of violence

Housing aid (for those who stayed in the shelter)
- Qualification : Migrant women and that family member
- Length of Stay: 2 years

Self-reliance

Self-reliance

Self-reliance Support Center
- Self-reliance support (for those who stayed in the shelter)
Qualification : Migrant women and that family member
- Length of Stay: 2 years

<Rental House Aid>

Qualification : Migrant women and that family member
Length of Stay : 2 years, which can be extended an additional 2 years.

If you become a victim of violence, just ask for help from any of the following organizations.

- Counseling and aid for the victims of violence, including domestic violence, sexual violence, and sex trafficking
- Free legal and medical aid
- Counseling on visa extensions and the naturalization process
- Counseling on adapting to life in Korea and the protection of human and other rights
- Connection to relevant organizations including the Shelter for Migrant Woman Who Are Victims of Violence

- Accommodation and meals
- Counseling and medical aid
- Legal aid, including investigation and trial
- Aid for staying in and departing from Korea
- Information on job training and employment, subsidies for self-reliance
- Other services required for the protection of victims.

- Accommodation and meals
- Support for self-reliance and self-support

- Job skills education and training (support for the acquisition of certificates)
- Job seeking support
- Childcare support for dependent children
- Preparation for self-reliance and self-support

<Self-reliance subsidy system>

Self-reliance support system helps migrant women who are victims of violence to adapt to a community.

- Targets : Migrant women who endeavor to be independent after leaving shelters.
- Subsidy : Up to 5 Million KRW per person (to be decided based on an evaluation).

Migrant Woman Prevention of Violence Guide

What is violence?

Domestic violence

Any acts resulting in physical, mental, or material damages among family members.

Sexual violence

Any acts resulting in physical, mental or social damages to other parties by forcing sexual behaviors on those parties without consent, or by forcing those parties to do sexual behaviors.

Sex Trafficking

Intercourses or similar acts to take money, valuables and other gains from many and unspecified persons, done by promising such gains.

In case of experiencing any damages due to violence, immediately ask for help without hesitation!

Domestic violence against migrant women

Physical violence

Any acts causing wounds or damages using physical power, including hitting the body of the other party

Verbal and emotional violence

Any acts causing emotional injuries to the other party verbally

Sexual violence

Any acts asking for sexual intercourses that the other party doesn't want or causes sexual humiliation

Economic violence

No living expenses are given or arbitrary acts of disposing of property without the consent of the other party.

Restriction

Any acts of hiding the ID of the other party, including passports, or blocking any relation-ship with others (blocking from attending Korean classes or a home-country club).

What can we do in case we experience damages due to violence?

Immediately call

Danuri Call Center
1577-1366
1366, the emergency helpline for women.

Counsel with the Migrant Women Counseling Center and ask for an interpreter.

Immediately call 112 to report the violence to the police.

Ask for help from a friend, an acquaintance, or a neighbor.

Get a medical examination in the case of any injuries and keep the medical examination record.

Prepare required personal possessions including passports, alien registration cards, cash, simple clothing, and contact details.

In case of any damages by violence, where can I call?

Danuri Call Center ☎ 1577-1366

- Emergency aid 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Information for living and extensive support for migrant women and multicultural families
- Counseling and interpretation service in 13 languages Korean, Vietnamese, Chinese, Filipino, Mongol, Russian, Thai, Cambodian, Japanese, Uzbek, Lao, Nepali, and English

Violence Victim Counseling Centers for Migrant Women

- (Seoul) 070-8829-1366
- (Daegu) 053-745-4501
- (Incheon) 032-446-0091
- (Gangwon) 033-261-4613
- (Chungbuk) 043-223-5253
- (Chungnam) 041-566-1366
- (Jeonbuk) 063-255-1366
- (Jeonnam) 061-282-1562
- (Jeju) 064-722-6242

Report to the police ☎ 112

- Immediate movement to the location and urgent protection.

Hotline for Women ☎ 1366

- Urgent counseling, temporal protection, and rescue support 24 hours a day, 365 days a year
- Medical aid, legal counseling, and connection to relevant organizations. ※ Service in Korean.